

BENEFITS OF NBMA MEMBERSHIP

- All documents, emails, mail outs, verbal enquiries and the web site are available in both official languages
- Simultaneous translation at the Annual General Meeting
- Mass messaging available by email, telephone and through Region Directors
- 4 mail outs a year
- Region Directors have local meetings where members can voice concerns that can be forwarded to the Board for action
- Toll free number for use within the maritime provinces 1-866-923-6262
- Web site is available for news and the announcement of educational courses
- We advertise in various magazines, yellow pages, through links on web sites and through trade show participation
- Members have free use of a trade show promotion kit
- Web site advertises massage therapy to the general public
- Members can advertise on the web site for free
- Web site advertises the Association to the public
- We are being sought out as a credible authority on massage therapy; and we are being found via the web site
- The Registrar / Administrative Assistant provides excellent customer service in both languages
- The Registrar / Administrative Assistant has a vast array of resources and consultants at her disposal
- The malpractice and general liability insurance is administered on members' behalf by the office
- Insurance companies such as Blue Cross are notified by the office automatically when a member is eligible as a service provider
- NBMA is the only provincial association to hold insurance through Lackner McLennan which is the most comprehensive occurrence based package available in Canada
- Through MTAC we have a voice in national and international concerns as well as a say in issues such as national standards for examinations and CEUs
- We make presentations to massage schools to attract students.
- We present an award to a deserving graduate of each of the three approved schools in NB
- We evaluate massage schools in NB, QC and NS to make sure their curricula is up to our standards.
- We have a certified parliamentarian on staff
- We have a bilingual Executive Director who is very proactive on issues and offers suggestions for improvement based on his past experience
- A fiscally responsible Board
- Health, dental and vision benefit plan from Blue Cross